Human Resource

The component of Human Resources under NHM is to ensure availability of adequate manpower at the public health facilities in the rural and remote areas of the Haryana State.

Human Resources are largely based on the requirements. The component/scheme of Human Resources under NHM includes different interventions to ensure recruitment, deployment, continued capacity building and functioning of adequate health care man power in the Haryana State.

Interventions for increasing the generation of health Human Resources to meet the demands in the public sector

• Contractual appointment of HR for service delivery including Doctors, Consultant, Staff nurses, Lab technicians, ANMs, other paramedical staff and support staff for filling short term gaps at public facilities.

• Provision of incentives for ensuring service delivery in rural and remote areas

• Multi-skilling and skill up-gradation of existing staff such as doctors and staff nurses to overcome the shortage of specialists and skilled manpower interventions for effective management of existing HR, including measures for quality assurance • Measures for assessing the competencies of service delivery staff including nurses, ANM and Lab Technicians etc.

Conditionality -

All posts under NRHM are on contract and based on local criteria. The contract should be done by the Rogi Kalyan Samiti/ District Health Society. The stay of person so contracted at place of posting is mandatory. All such contracts are for a particular institution and non-tranferrable. The contracted person will not be attached for any purpose at any place.

2. At present a woman employee is entitled to “Fully Paid Maternity Leave” up to a maximum of three months i.e. 90 days or till the currency of the subsisting contract which ever is earlier. Now, It has been observed that female employees are facing problem when their contract ends within the maternity leave and their contract are not extended.
3. Keeping in view the above problem, the matter has been reconsidered and decided that when the contract of a female employee ends between the maternity leave period, her contract should be renewed after giving a one day break if she is otherwise found eligible for renewal of contract. Such period (after the last day of contract upto her joining day after fitness) should be treated as without pay.
